The Freedom of Information Act 2000

The Freedom of Information Act, gives the general right of access to all types of recorded information held by First Contact Clinical. The intention of the Act is to encourage a spirit of openness and transparency in the NHS and the whole public sector. Our organisation aims to fully support this.

The public have had full access rights from January 2005. This means that far more information will be routinely and freely made available. This is subject to some exemptions, which will be outlined later in this leaflet.

Any individual or organisation can make a request for information. The applicant does not have to explain why this information is requested. The Act gives the right to:
- Be told if information exists
- Receive information (ideally in the format requested, for example, as a copy or summary or the applicant may ask to inspect a record)

The publication scheme can be accessed via the Director of Operations.

The Publication Scheme

First Contact Clinical has developed a publication scheme. It is a guide to information, routinely published and gives indication of information intended to be published. The publication scheme describes the form in which the information is published. A request can be made from information listed in this publication scheme.
